

E-LEGAL: PRIVACY AND LAW ENFORCEMENT ON THE WORLD WIDE WEB

9:00-9:05 Opening Remarks by Dean Mayer

9:05-10:45 PANEL I: PRIVACY AND THE CORPORATE REALM

Moderator: Annette Kahler, Director, Center for Law & Innovation, Visiting Assistant Professor of Law

Thomas Smith, Esq. '82, Assistant Deputy Director and Counsel at NYS Cyber Security & Critical Infrastructure Coordination

New York State Information Security Breach and Notification Act: State Breach Notification Requirements

John Kennedy, Esq., Partner at Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP

National Information Insecurity: Recent Federal Initiatives in Private Sector Information Security

Dale Skivington, Esq. '79, Assistant General Counsel, Vice President Legal Department and Former Chief Privacy Officer at Eastman Kodak Company

Protecting Consumer's Privacy – The Role of Legislation and Self Regulation

Andrew DeVore, Esq., Partner at DeVore & DeMarco LLP

Cloud Computing: Privacy Storm on the Horizon?

10:45-10:55 Q&A for Panel I

10:55-11:05 Break

Coffee and light refreshments will be provided.

11:15-12:45 PANEL II: WHEN PRIVACY INTERSECTS WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT

Moderator: Michael Hutter, Professor of Law

Shun-ling Chen, SJD candidate, Harvard Law School

Self-Governance of Online Communities In the Era of Web 2.0: Wikipedia as an Example

Brian Kane, Esq., Assistant Chief Deputy Attorney General, State of Idaho

Anonymity, Popularity, & Micro-Celebrity: The Crossroads of Social Networking & Privacy

Stephen Treglia, Esq. '79, Assistant District Attorney and Chief of the Technology Crime Unit, Nassau County District Attorney's Office

The Clash of Titanic Paradigms – The American Criminal Justice System versus Modern Computer Technology. The Greatest Unresolvable Conflict between a Square Peg and a Round Hole?

12:45-12:55 Q&A for Panel II

12:55-1:00 Closing Remarks